

Section 2000 – General School Administration

2560 Consultants

2560

The Superintendent shall encourage the use of professional consultants and other resource persons when such consultative services will be helpful in the improvement of the educational program in the District. Employees shall adhere to the District's purchasing and nepotism policies when contracting with a consultant. All consultant services shall be based on a written contract.

Consultants shall exercise no administrative authority over the work of employees, but shall act only as advisors in those fields in which they are qualified to offer assistance and for which they are contracted.
